President Ryan asked Ms. Ramos to address the question of what is an going structural deficit could potentially be reduced by $5.5 million dollars in 2021, more or less. Ms. Ramos said no, not necessarily because the COLA was going to be reduced. Therefore, the reduction in COLA would need to be offset against the Special Education increase.

	Member Garcia asked which programs would still be available for potential bud reductions. She has concerns because we cannot just rely on healthcare savings

President Ryan asked, according to School Services, what the average reserve is for an urban school district. Ms. Ramos said that there is a reserve list that she will make available.

salaries include additional components for teachers that is in the budget that does not end up in the J90. What they were trying to demonstrate in the table is that, over time, the teacher salaries at the District were lower than at other districts, but when they added in the health benefit and looked at total compensation, it was consistently the highest across the board. Ms. Howle then spoke more about 2018-19 and 2019-20 comparisons. They wanted to make sure they were fairly comparing the District to other districts. Subsequently, the J90 reports have come out for 2018-19, and staff

Mr. Kolitsos said that the Board is always welcome to contact the audit team to talk about what is happening and if the District is on the right track or not. Member Murawski said that she appreciates the on-going support and collaboration as we all work to get ourselves on a better fiscal path. Ms. Howle gave an example of this type of collaboration.

process. Perhaps prior to our current governance structure, maybe we were not as clear about how little flexibility there was, and perhaps the assumption was that we had a lot of programs that we could fund and were, in fact, funding. And that to be able to make the cuts necessary from unrestricted general funds has not been the case for many, many years. We have heard this from the County office and other entities. Superintendent Aguilar asked the audit team how they came to the conclusion that the District's budget structure has very little flexibility outside of the collective bargaining process at the moment. Mr. Kolitsos said that one of the first things they did was to look at expenses and revenues and saw that expenses are consistently exceeding revenues year after year; we look at the budget and see that 80 percent of the District's funds are going to salaries and benefits. We reviewed various proposals that basically suggested cuts in other areas outside of the collective bargaining process and found that, while some may generate some savings, none of them would actually provide any significant savings that would cover the structural deficit that the District is currently facing. Based on that, we looked at what other options you have. We looked at adjusting salaries and benefits,
