

The Board will discuss the data and conclusions from the Monitoring Report in open session. At the end of the discussion, the Board will vote on whether it will accept the report, as presented, as evidence of reasonable interpretation and reasonable progress toward achieving the Board's policy. The Board will determine whether the policy is "in compliance," "in compliance with exceptions," or "not in compliance." If the policy is "in compliance with exceptions" or "not in compliance," the Board has the

I interpret this policy to mean that I will prepare one or more chief officers to make decisions in my absence. I define "emergency basis" as a situation where a chief officer or officers collaboratively make decisions in my absence, specifically in the event that I am unavailable due to circumstances beyond my control and which cause me to be absent without permanently relinquishing my position. This interpretation excludes long-term planning, decision-making about the organizational structure and
