that tipping point, based on the fiscal analysis, that in our last year we entered into contractual obligations that exceeded our ability to sustain those obligations post one time funds. Michelle Giacomini responds, until last year you [SCUSD] were doing a much better job when entering into agreements for expenditures, you [SCUSD] were balancing the budget. But last year you [SCUSD] started deficit spending.

President Ryan would like to do an assessment of what we have in place if anything and how we can move
