

DIS

August 17, 2016
Page 2

Who can report a vessel's discharge

A discharge is reported on the discharge report form (NIG-100) by the person who observed the discharge or the person who was notified of the discharge. The person who reports the discharge must be a resident of the United States or a resident of a country that is a party to the International Convention on the High Seas (I979).

