

William and Mary Preassessment
Autobiographies & Memoirs
Literature Preassessment

DIRECTIONS: Read the poem "Autobiographia Literaria" by Frank O'Hara, and then answer the following questions.

1. State an important idea from the poem in a sentence or two.

2. In your own words, explain what the speaker means by the statement, "And here I am, the / center of all beauty!"

3. What does the poem tell us about change? Support your response with details from the poem.

4. Write a new title for the poem. Give two reasons from the poem that show why your new title is a good one.
